

Internal Auditor

- Global leading brands
- Lifestyle location
- Great career move

To be a leader in the vibrant surf apparel industry takes more than just talented designers, forward thinkers and clever selling techniques – it also requires a financial infrastructure that is second to none. Due to an internal promotion, an opportunity now exists for an Internal Auditor to coordinate and develop the compliance program at our Asia-Pacific headquarters located at Torquay.

Reporting to the Financial Controller, this important role is primarily responsible for:

- Managing ongoing Sarbanes-Oxley compliance
- Assisting the management team with due diligence reviews of possible acquisitions,
- focusing on ensuring internal controls of the acquisition comply with Quiksilver requirements
- Implementation of an internal audit program focused on regular reviews of effectiveness of internal controls, and the timely reporting of identified issues to the management team
- Assisting the management team in maintaining up to date knowledge of Accounting Standards and relevant legislation

The successful candidate will be CA/CPA qualified (or nearing completion of) and have a minimum of 3 years internal/external audit experience, and must also possess strong influencing skills, be a self-starter, and a committed team player. In return, Quiksilver offers a dynamic and positive workplace culture, and the opportunity to contribute to our growth and ongoing success.
